MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

I have enjoyed helping with the Y5/6 Residential this week. Mr Carrington shared the week with me, which I would like to thank him for. Organising these events take up such a lot of time and the staff that attend do so voluntarily. Thank you to Mr Smith, Mrs Flint and Mrs Torreiro who stayed the entire week in Sayers Croft with the children. A extra special thank you to the lovely Mrs Torreiro who organised an exceptional week and her positivity and energy kept us all going throughout the rain!

UPDATE FROM SAYERS CROFT

Year 5 and Year 6 had a lovely week at Sayers Croft this week – despite the rain! The children really enjoyed experiencing a range of outdoor activities that were both challenging and fun. There will be a more detailed update in next week’s Morden Messenger.

REQUEST FOR CLOTHING DONATIONS

We have an urgent need for trousers! We are finding that we are sending children home in clean clothing from our spare clothes cupboard and it’s not being returned. Please do remember to return any items that your child has loaned. We are seeking donations of:

- * Trousers to fit reception, year 1 and year 2 children
- * Pants for the 5-6 age range (boys and girls)

Thank you very much

CHICKEN POX

Please be aware that we have had a number of cases of chicken pox in school. Please ensure you contact the school to let us know if your child contracts chicken pox. Thank you
